She was born May 14, 1961 in São Paulo, Brazil to Geraldo and Maria de Silva. She attended school in Brazil, and graduated from college there. She joined The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in January of 1991. She married Gary H. Bethers on May 24, 1991. They were sealed in the São Paulo Temple on February 15, 1992. They moved to the United States in March 1992. They have two beautiful children: Jaely, seven years old, and Joshua, five years old.

Fátima was always an example of courage, faith, and happiness to her friends and family. She was active in her ward and served in the primary presidency. Fátima is survived by her husband and children of Salt Lake; her parents and one brother, José C. and Isabel Silva of Brazil and three sisters, Ana C. and Alexandre Silva, and Cassia R. and Wagner Oliveira of Brazil, and Sheila and Mark Mogie of Tooele. She has 11 nieces and nephews and many other family members.
